Nana Affer Twarko III, the Omanhene of Abreshia and the Adontehene of the Eguafó Traditional Council in the Komenda Edina Eguafó

AbremDistrict in the Central Region of Ghana has charged and inspired the community youth to respect and practice their culture as well as become active participants in national affairs.

Nana Affel made this call at Abreshia during a 5 day special events organized to mark his 40 years of his enstoolment on the throne as the Omanhene of the community.

According to our community correspondent Ms. Comfort WAP Abakah, the events which were all held at the Market square was climaxed with a special procession and the carrying of Nana in palanquin and with a durbar at the town's centre. The events attracted the youth and people from the following neighboring communities ie. Ntsinman, Dabir, Benyaadze, Egyaikrom and Ayensudo Junction.

Among the VIP speakers who graced the occasion are the District NDC Chairman, District Assembly members, government representatives and one popular alternative medicine doctor, Dr. Nsamka. Others are Dr. Nana Ato Arthur and Madam Doreen Ewuraba Mansa Manieson both aspiring MPs for KEEA respectively were in attendance.

During his speech Nana called on the Youth to be respectful of our heritage and traditions which is the foundation for the contemporary democratic practices. He said the Youth who are the backbone of the country take on lackadaisical attitude towards national affairs such as elections, everybody become a loser. He said, participation in politics should be responsible one and that they should be wary of many politicians who would use them to achieve their selfish political goals. He called on the youth to think wisely before they vote. He also thanked the community, the invited guests and all the Nananom present for their time honoured in their presence to assist in the celebration. He promised the people, he would continue to serve them with all his might and resources.

There was a Thanksgiving service on Sunday and an open air dance which was sponsored by the town's youth featuring the Peace Sounds from UCC Amamoma. It was Azonto fever all the way as our correspondent Ms. Comfort WAP Abakah reported. Photo credit goes to Kojo Atta Kakra Abrowah.
